IT'S OFFICIAL MONTE START RETURNS TO CLYDEBANK

Press release from Alan Douglas

Clydebank will be the Scottish starting point for the Rallye Monte Carlo Historique and Classique in January 2019.

The rally cars will be flagged off from Aurora Avenue and is expected to bring thousands of visitors to the area.

The cars will set off through the streets of Clydebank on Wednesday, 30 January, as they begin their 1,500 mile rally to Monte Carlo.

It is the second time the town has hosted the prestigious event, with over 14,000 people turning out to watch when it started in Clydebank in 2012.

Baillie Denis Agnew said: "It is a real privilege to welcome the Monte Carlo Classic Car Rally back to Clydebank. When we last hosted the rally not only did we have drivers from all over the country, but also visitors from throughout the UK. We look forward to extending our warm welcome once again to organisers, participants and spectators."

Douglas Anderson, the UK co-ordinator of the event is delighted: "It is great to see the Scottish start returning to Clydeside. The event grows in stature every year and we're confident the 2019 event will attract another record number of entries and crowds to match to wave them off on their drive to the sunshine in the South of France. They'll all be sharing the magic of the Monte".

The event, which takes place on 30 January, will see classic cars available for viewing by the public from 3.30pm, with the rally beginning at 6.00pm.

Both the Historique and Classique events are staged by the Automobile Club de Monaco (ACM).
